

Ottoline's Spot the Difference

Ottoline is a Mistress of Disguise who loves solving tricky puzzles and coming up with clever plans. She always keeps her eyes and ears open in case she comes across anything unusual or interesting.

But how observant are you?

Can you spot all ten differences between the two pictures below?

Illustrations © Chris Riddell 2007

Answers: One of the birds hanging from the wall is sitting differently, the floor has more debris, the bird's collar is different, one of the children has a different hat, the bird is perched on a different stand, the floor has more debris, the bird is perched on a different stand, the floor has more debris, the bird is perched on a different stand, the floor has more debris, the bird is perched on a different stand.

www.panmacmillan.com/chrisriddell

MACMILLAN
Children's Books