Shadows are dark shapes. They are made when an object blocks a light source. This stops the light from shining on a surface.

How can you make different shadow shapes? How can you make shadows bigger or smaller?

When the sun's light rays hit solid objects, such as trees, the objects cast shadows.

What shapes can you make with your shadow?