

MAKE A DATE WITH ROALD DAHL

MISCHIEF AND MAYHEM

ROALD DAHL DAY, 13TH SEPTEMBER 2013

The official Roald Dahl Day takes place every year on 13th September – the birthday of the World's No. 1 Storyteller. This year, Roald Dahl Day falls on Friday 13th, making it the perfect excuse for even more mischief and mayhem than usual.

Celebrate all the tricks and characters that fill Roald Dahl's books – from George and his marvellous medicine to those foulsome Witches

AFTER ALL, NO BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION IS COMPLETE WITHOUT A LITTLE MISCHIEF!

MORE MISCHIEF AND MAYHEM

TRICKY! STICKY! And quite simply vile!

For more examples and flushbunking ideas from the experts, read Roald Dahl's Mischief and Mayhem.

GEORGE'S MARVELLOUS MISSING INGREDIENTS

'GEORGE couldn't help disliking Grandma. She was a selfish grumpy old woman. She had pale brown teeth and a small puckered-up mouth like a dog's bottom.' – George's Marvellous Medicine

GEORGE MIXES UP A REVOLTING CONCOCTION FOR HIS GRANDMA FROM INGREDIENTS AROUND THE HOUSE . . .

1. Collect 15 random household objects, for example Nevermore Ponking Deodorant and flea powder.
2. Lay all the objects on a table.
3. Give mischief-makers one minute to look at them.
4. Make everyone cover their eyes and hide a few objects.
5. Now let everyone look again – they have one minute to write down what's missing.
6. The winner is the person who remembers the most objects.

HENRY SUGAR

MIND-READING TRICK

Henry Sugar is the man who can see with his eyes closed. It takes years of practice and even a trip into the jungle. If you're short of time this Roald Dahl Day then impress your friends with some mathematical mind-reading!

ASK THEM TO THINK OF A NUMBER - ANY NUMBER

THEN MULTIPLY IT BY 2

ADD 10 TO THE TOTAL

NOW DIVIDE BY 2

FINALLY SUBTRACT THE TOTAL FROM THE FIRST NUMBER YOU PICKED

IS YOUR ANSWER 5 ?

MORE MISCHIEF & MAYHEM

ROALD DAHL DAY

The official Roald Dahl Day takes place every year on 13th September – the birthday of the World's No. 1 Storyteller! This year's theme is Mischief & Mayhem. We're tipping our hat (provided it's not superglued to our heads) to all those mischief-makers in Roald Dahl's stories, from George and his marvellous medicine to Matilda.

Keep your eyes peeled for more information on Roald Dahl's Facebook page, www.facebook.com/roalddahl, www.roalddahlday.info and follow @roald_dahl. Don't forget to tag your flushbunking fun #RoaldDahlDay

FROM PAGE TO STAGE!

Matilda the Musical has been astounding West End audiences since it opened in 2010. With five Best Musical Awards and four Tony awards (and a Tony Honor) to its name, it's a bona fide Broadway and West End smash hit. Created by the Royal Shakespeare Company, it wonderfully retells Roald Dahl's story of a little genius changing the world. There's also a fantastic learning resource for schools, with video tips from Tim Minchin and even draft scripts to inspire budding writers. Visit www.matildawritenow.org.uk

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory the Musical has to be seen to be believed. Directed by Sam Mendes and starring Douglas Hodge as Willy Wonka, it brings all the book's magic and Oompa-Loompas to life. Every ticket is golden, so stop feasting on chocolate for a moment and get yours now. Schools can make the most of the page to stage resources too! Visit www.charlieandthechocolatefactory.com

DAHLICIOUS DRESS UP!

Get set for the Dahlicious Dress Up Day on Friday 27th September 2013. All in aid of Roald Dahl's Marvellous Children's Charity, we're inviting schools to dress up in their most wondercrump Roald Dahl-inspired costumes.

Register now for your fundraising pack at: www.roalddahlcharity.org or email schools@roalddahlcharity.org

THE ROALD DAHL MUSEUM AND STORY CENTRE

This great little award-winning museum is situated in Great Missenden, Buckinghamshire, where Roald Dahl lived and wrote for 36 years. The museum has two fun and fact-packed biographical galleries, Roald Dahl's original writing hut and a fantabulous interactive story centre.

Find out more at www.roalddahlmuseum.org or call 01494 892192 for more information.
