

Defending the indefensible

- As you fill in the gaps below, remember that you are putting together an argument to explain and justify your actions, as a character in the book.
- Remember, not everyone will agree with your opinions and behaviour, so you must use persuasive language.
- Your argument will be stronger if you take care over the sequence of points that you make. It may help if you number these.

NOTE: I am thinking with my chosen character's mindset – not with my own!

My character is _____

What I think about Cameron's pig's heart transplant:

What I have done that has affected Cameron's life and his family:

Why I have done this – how I defend my actions:
