Contents

How to use this book	5
Grammatical words
Nouns with capital letters Adjectives Noun phrases Verbs: present tense Verbs: past tense Verbs: present tenses with 'ing' Verbs: past tenses with 'ing' Adverbs Joining words More joining words Standard English	7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 16
Punctuation
Sentence types: statements and questions. Sentence types: exclamations and commands. Commas in lists Apostrophes to show missing letters Apostrophes to show belonging	21 22 24
Vocabulary
Suffixes Suffixes: 'er' and 'est' Suffixes: 'ed' and 'ing' Words ending with 'tion'	30
Spelling
Long vowel sounds Tricky vowel sounds: /or/ and /air/ The /o/ sound after 'w' and 'qu' Tricky endings: 'le' or 'el', 'al' or 'il'? Tricky endings: 'dge' or 'ge'?	34 35 36

Contents

Tricky letter pairs: 'kn', 'gn' and 'wr'	39
The soft 'c' sound	40
Tricky 's' endings	41
Making a long /i/ sound at the end of a word	42
Using 'ey' to make an /ee/ sound	43
The /or/ sound before 'l' and 'll'	44
Using 'o' to make a short /u/ sound
Making an /or/ sound after 'w'
Making an /ur/ sound after 'w'
Tricky words
Compound words
Words that sound the same
More words that sound the same
Plurals with 's' and 'es'	52
Reading
Ordering events	54
Explaining the order of events
How texts are organised
What words mean
Explaining characters and events
Explaining information
Predicting what might happen
Making inferences
Talking about texts	66
Looking at language in stories and poetry	68
Writing
Personal experiences	70
Fiction
Real events
Poetry
Writing for different purposes
Editing
Proofreading

Verbs: present tenses with 'ing'

Learn

What are present tenses with ing?

Sometimes we need to describe actions that are still happening now, or that were happening in the past. To do this we use a being verb with a doing verb ending in ing.

We can describe actions in the present that are happening now. To do this we use the being verbs am, is or are + the doing verb ending ing.

am

are

is

+ doing verb and ing

I am jumping he is jumping they are jumping

Activities

1. Copy these sentences. Choose the correct verb from:

'is'. 'am' and 'are'.

- a. Ellie ____ washing her hair tonight.
- b. Auntie Kath and Uncle Richard ____ taking me to the cinema.
- c. I ____ eating my tea.

✓ Tip

am. is and are are sometimes called helper verbs.

- 2. Write the words that show the actions which are happening now.
 - a. I am walking with my gran and grandad.
 - b. The trees are blowing in the wind.
- 3. Use the helper verbs to rewrite these sentences so they describe something which is happening now.
 - a. We go to the pool.
 - I swim backstroke.

Verbs: past tenses with 'ing'

Learn

How do we use past tenses with ing?

We can describe actions in the past that were happening.

To do this, we use the being verbs was and were + the doing verb ending ing.

was was

were

+ doing verb and ing

I was reading he was reading they were reading

[Insert a/w of children reading a book/Kindle]

Activities

- I. These events have already happened. Write the sentences. Add the correct verbs to complete them.
 - a. The children were ____ sandcastles.
 - b. Jane was ____ her bike.
 - c. I was ____ television.
- 2. Use the helper verbs to write a sentence about each picture to show what each person was doing yesterday.

✓ Tip

was and were are sometimes called helper verbs.

Use the helper verbs: was. were.

12 Grammatical words