ANGRY BIRDS™

STOP THE PIGS!

This is Bird Island. The birds here can't fly but they are happy.

This is Red. He does not live in town with the birds. He has no friends. He is always angry.

This is Judge Peckinpah. He does not like Red.

This is Mighty Eagle.

The birds like him. He is their hero because he is strong and he can fly.

A vibrant illustration of three Angry Birds characters perched on a thick, textured tree branch. On the left is Bomb, a black bird with a red visor and a grey beard. In the middle is Terence, a large red bird with a grumpy expression. On the right is Chuck, a small yellow bird with a black tuft of feathers and a wide, happy grin. The background shows a lush tropical setting with green foliage and a clear blue sky.

Bomb, Terence and Chuck go to a class for angry birds.

This is Matilda. She is the teacher in the class for angry birds.

This is Leonard. He is a pig. Leonard and the pigs live on Piggy Island.

A white bird character named Matilda, standing on a grassy area. She has a large, round body, a wide, toothy grin, and her arms are raised in a happy gesture. She is wearing a dark green collar.
