

The dogs' tales

- These animals look like modern dogs taking an interest in ancient events. Write a speech or thought bubble for each dog.

Theseus waved goodbye as he set sail for Crete.

King Acrisius was angry and afraid when Perseus was born.

Periander settled back to listen to some of Arion's finest singing.

- Choose another dog from the book. Draw the dog and the scene it comes from, and add a speech or thought bubble for the dog.
