HOGWARTS TIMETABLE

Complete your timetable with two lessons for each subject. Add in four flying lessons.

Then decide what you could do with your free periods.

	Lesson 1	Lesson 2		Lesson 3	Lesson 4
Monday			L
Tuesday			U
Wednesday			N
Thursday			C
Friday			H

If you could create a potent potion of your own, what ingredients would you use and what would the potion do?

HOGWARTS ADVENTURE

Tick one box from each column to choose your perfect wand.

hawthorn <input type="checkbox"/>	troll whisker <input type="checkbox"/> red oak <input type="checkbox"/> alder <input type="checkbox"/>

Now draw your ideal wand!

Think about a time when you've done something silly. Write a Howler from a parent, grandparent or teacher, or send a Howler to someone you know.

Can you draw a map of how you think Hogwarts would be laid out? Place an X where you would most like to be.

What do you think your Animagus would be?
Draw it here. What nickname would you give your Animagus self?

My Animagus is called:

Pretend that you are a writer for The Daily Prophet, the top wizarding newspaper.
Grab your quill and write a story that is worthy of being front-page news.

Create your own magical creature,
then write its name below.

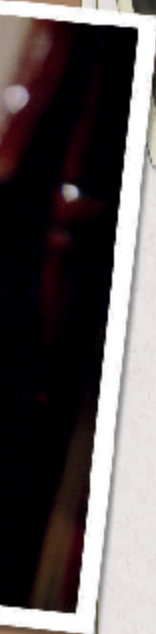

My magical creature is called:

Imagine you were able to conjure your own Patronus. What kind of animal do you think it would be?

A house-elf is granted freedom when they are given clothing by their master. If you could, what kind of clothes would you give a house-elf to set him or her free?

Imagine you had a Time-Turner of your own.
What would you use it for?

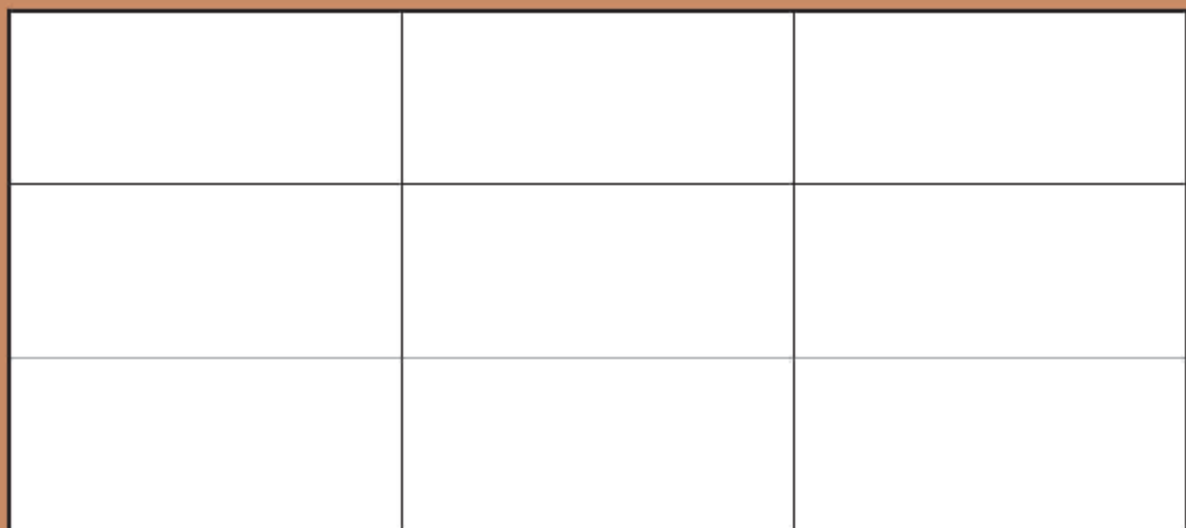

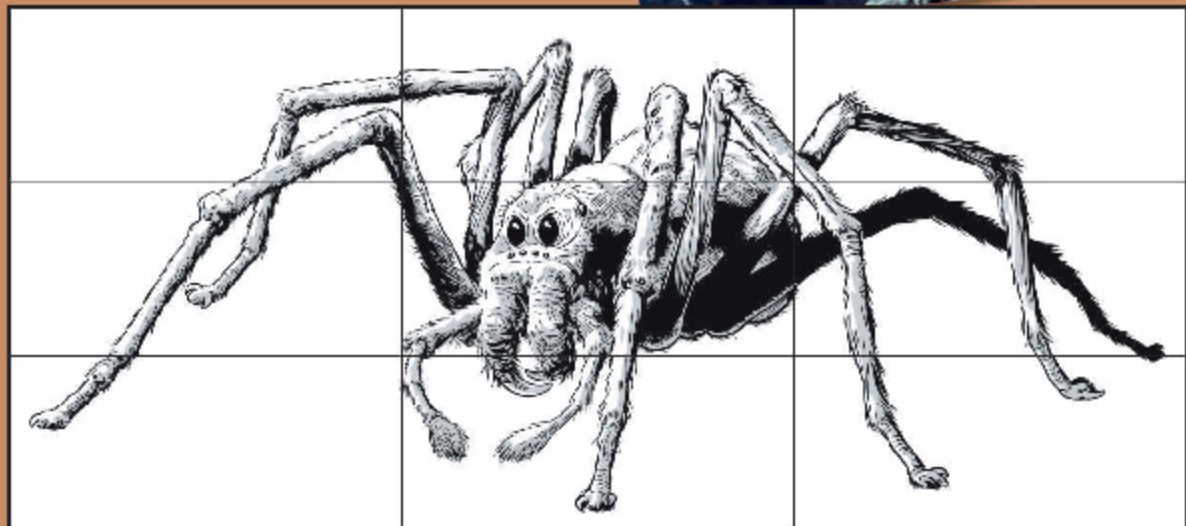

MIRROR WIBBOL

Stare into the Mirror of Erised and the deepest desire of your heart will be revealed.

As a first-year student, Harry visited the Mirror of Erised as often as he could for a glimpse of his parents.

Imagine you had a chance to look into the Mirror of Erised.
What do you think the Mirror would show you? Draw it above.

Draw and colour Aragog in the space above.
Try copying the picture section by section.

In the third task of the Triwizard Tournament, Harry has to battle his way through a magical maze.

Create your own maze on this page and challenge a friend to find their way through!
