

Section 1: Using good examples

Setting similes

A simile is a comparison between two things, using 'like' or 'as'.
For example:

The polar bear was as white as snow.

The stars sparkled like diamonds.

- Write a list of similes to describe this setting.

Illustration © 2009, Mike Phillips.

The moon shone in the sky like _____

_____

The night was as black as _____

_____

The forest was as creepy as _____

_____

- Now turn over and write some similes of your own.