

Investigate body defences

Some animals have special body parts to help them to stay alive.

Crabs have hard body parts to keep them safe. They have large claws to crush and cut their prey.

Deer have a special body part to help them fight.

