

Two homes

Some baby animals start life in water. Their bodies change a lot. As adults they live on land. They go in and out of water.

How are baby frogs different from adult frogs?

Water baby

Young salamanders live in water.

Adult salamanders live on land.