

Percy Parker's musical adventures across the curriculum

Your journey starts here...

A creative, cross-curricular approach is at the heart of engaging teaching and learning. Primary schools are increasingly exploring new ways to maximise the benefits it brings: improved self-esteem, richer social and emotional understanding, collaborative skills, improved speaking and listening and, of course, creative thinking. Enter stage left, Percy Parker and his musical adventures across the curriculum!

Percy Parker's Flying Bathtub is a 'pick-and-mix' modular musical resource for primary schools. Percy's fact-packed adventures combine top-notch, professionally written and recorded songs, engaging scripts and carefully prepared educational resources to bring a unique educational experience to your whole school. Whether teaching in the classroom, planning a memorable class assembly or putting on a full-blown school production, this unique resource will support you all the way. The pack contains everything you need to plan, rehearse and perform (including learning about the facts behind the scenes), all adding to the sparkle, creativity and cross-curricular learning in your school.

The CD-ROM is packed full of extras, including photographic backgrounds (for ready-made, projected backdrops), choreography videos, a poster advertisement... not to mention every script provided in an editable format (perfect for some great creative literacy work, or just to enable you to personalise your school's performance!) And for the really adventurous, there are even extra instrumental backing tracks and helpful tips on how to create your own customised adventures with Percy and the gang!

Percy Parker's Flying Bathtub is a unique 'modular' musical, designed to be adapted to any school setting. The opening and the ending scenes are set, but the destinations of all of Percy's adventures are up to you!

The opportunities to customise and develop this wonderful performance-based resource are endless – from learning the songs with your class to support topic work, to putting on your school's big production! And with other Percy Parker packs available on a variety of subjects, the pick-and-mix musical learning can become even more flexible and fun!

Best of all, every scene is packed full with fun, learning and fantastic, funky music!

Enjoy your flight!
